"And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your religion if they can. And whosoever of you turns back from his religion and dies as a disbeliever, then his deeds will be lost in this life and in the Hereafter, and they will be the dwellers of the Fire. They will abide therein forever." [From Al-Baqarah 2:217]

The Mali Invasion: A French Proxy War

A Speech by Sheikh Abu Musab Abdul Wadud may Allah Preserve Him

In the Name of Allah, the most Gracious and Merciful

My Muslim brothers everywhere: Peace be upon you, and Allah's mercy and blessings.

My speech comes at a time when France and the Crusader West are beating the drum of a proxy war in the area of the African Sahel, and in this time, they were supposed to issue a UN and international resolution to stop the horrific massacres committed by the criminal Syrian regime against the children, women and sons of the Syrian Muslim people. In these difficult times, the Security Council issued Resolution No. 2071, which gives the green light for the occupation of Muslim lands in Mali, that poor country in which its people suffer poverty, misery and deprivation caused by the looting of the Crusader West of its wealth. This oppressive resolution thus came to increase their looting with direct, usurping occupation that is added to the occupation of Palestine, Iraq, Afghanistan and Somalia.

It is a new episode of the Zio-Crusader invasion of Muslim countries, which clearly shows the landmarks of the global law of the jungle, which is based on double standards and unjust policies that are implemented by the strong over the weak and the tyrants over those who are deemed weak. Who thought or imagined that many of meetings will take place and people will gather in this record time, and the UN sessions will be held along with the Security Council, the EU, and the AU, not to oust the criminal butcher Bashar, and not to deter the ongoing Israeli crimes against our besieged people in Gaza, but to invade Mali under the pretext of preventing Muslims there from being ruled by Islamic Sharia, and stopping the imminent Islamic threat that is only 3,000 km from Europe, as they claim. Our Lord, Glorified and Exalted be He, spoke the truth when He said: "And they will never cease fighting you until they turn you back from your religion if they can." [From Al- Baqarah 2:217]

O weak Muslims, O Africans whose wealth is looted by France, O free ones of the world who are longing to achieve justice among all people, today we stand before an important historic moment where lies are remarketed to the world and methods of satanic deceit are being cloned; a moment that takes our minds to days past, before the invasion of Iraq, to remind us of the biggest American lie that Bush and Colin Powell promoted in order to evoke and recruit for the war. Do you remember?

It? It is the lie of the chemical weapons and that Saddam is strongly connected to al-Qaeda and Zarqawi.

Today, here is Crusader France repeating the same American cycle to justify its war, and carrying the same dirty and suspicious role. Its foreign minister runs here and there to recruit the world to invade Mali through fabricating lies that justify this oppressive war imposed by France on everyone and on top of them the Africans and the countries of the Sahel. Here is Hollande lying and making al-Qaeda Organization in the Land of the Islamic Maghreb, the hanger on which he hangs his Domestic political failures, and to hide behind it the dangerous and disastrous goals for the occupation, division and destruction of Mali, for its explosive shrapnel to reach all its neighbors among the countries of the region for sure.

We hear and see today how the French media is following the methodology of intimidation and lying to the world, the Africans, and the French people, and deceiving and deluding them that there are hundreds of French and Arab jihadists coming to Mali to return afterwards to Europe to attack it and to spread in Africa and invade it. It is the same hanger that the tyrants were accustomed to use,

Starting with Bush, passing through Gaddafi and Bashar, and arriving at Holland.

It is the historical responsibility to explain the facts and put the dots on the letters, so I wanted in my speech to direct several messages to several entities.

The first message:

I wanted to expose the hidden goals and the real reasons behind this war that France wants to impose by proxy on the peoples of the region. It is a guarantee to loot more wealth of Muslims and Africans, and to continue the flow of uranium and oil for other than their real prices to France's factories, mixed with the sweat of the miserable ones who are crushed in Niger, and until the treasures of gold and diamonds in Mali and its surroundings run out through looting them at the cheapest prices, while the Malian people are deep in poverty and deprivation, and in order for the children of Europe to continue enjoying the taste of chocolate that is mixed with the tears of Malian children enslaved in the cocoa farms.

In parallel, there is a dark Crusader hatred that is deeply-rooted in France and that is making it attack the honor of our Prophet, peace and prayer be upon him, by publishing the offensive cartoons, preventing Muslim women in France from their personal rights in wearing the niqab, and harassing Muslims in their countries, which is the same hatred that is pushing it today to recruit for a war that prevents Muslims from their right to live committed to their Sharia and their Islam in Their own country, where they represent nearly 90%.

Very simply, it is an unjust French proxy war, the motive of which is materialistic greed mixed with Crusader hatred against Islam and Muslims.

In order for France to achieve its desires, it is very keen today to intervene and have a military presence, which will turn to be permanent, in northern Mali. Moreover, if this first step succeeds, and it will not succeed, Allah permitting, it will be like a Trojan horse through which it will complete the rest of the satanic plan that depends on feeding the conflicts in the region and encouraging the division which threatens not just Mali, but all the neighboring countries with woes, wars and Divisions. The division of Sudan isn't far from us.

The second message:

I wanted to assure that al-Qaeda Organization has not and will not constitute a danger to Mali or the neighboring countries or the Africans, like France lies and claims. The mujahedeen have a clear goal, which is to defend their religion and the interests of their Ummah through targeting the Zio- Crusader alliance in order to make them cease occupying Muslim countries and intervening in their affairs. As for the neighboring countries and the African countries, they aren't among our targets,

Except when defend ourselves. Therefore, in order for these countries' leaders not to be dragged into a war that is not theirs, they must learn from the mistakes of others, and they must know that France wants its interest and not their interests. France wants them, their soldiers and peoples to be fuel for a holocaust, the sparks of which will reach their capitals while the French people will be safe and luxurious with the wealth of the Africans, and entrenched behind distant seas.

Therefore, I advise those leaders not to line up behind Hollande if they really want to benefit their countries and people. They should learn from the proverb that says: "If your house is made of glass, don't throw stones at people."

It is known that the houses of the Ivory Coast, Senegal, Nigeria and Mauritania are made of glass, and we aren't keen or desiring to throw stones at these houses, unless their stones reach us; then we will have to throw stones at their fragile glass houses.

The third message:

To the proud Muslim Malian people who are proud of their religion and their deep Islamic civilization, I say to them, the old-new problem in your country is a domestic problem between Muslims and it can be solved domestically by the Muslims reconciling among each other without shedding one drop of blood. All you're wise, honorable and elite ones are convinced about that and know that it is Possible. So, what is the business of the foreign disbelievers with your country? What is the business of the Crusader invaders with the problems of Muslims? When were the forces of global arrogance and tyranny concerned for the blood of the innocent? When were the merchants of the oil wars keen for the interests of the Muslims, desiring more oil mixed with Muslim blood?

France is lying to you when it claims that it is concerned for the unity of Mali, while all indications point to the opposite, confirming that it is the one that is most interested to divide the country. Isn't it the one that supported the Azawad Liberation Movement, to enable it to control northern Mali and establish an independent state there? But, praise be to Allah, your mujahedeen brothers and sons in the north from among the Islamists are the ones that destroyed its satanic projects and spoiled its despicable plots. Today, France wants to resume the same attempt in a roundabout way, depending on military intervention first, and then division second, where the north remains under the submission of its agents on a permanent basis, but there is no way.

So, my Muslim brothers in Mali, the real guarantee of the unity of Mali and the unity of its people is the Islamic project, which will prevent the division, stop the bleeding, establish justice, return the rights, and harmonize and reconcile among all the segments of your people. There are today golden and precious opportunities for understanding this project among the same Muslim people and brothers of the one religion, away from the arrogant international forces, and away from military Intervention pushed for by Crusader France, which will only bring you destruction, devastation and woes. Therefore, don't miss these precious opportunities and support them with all power and firmness.

Here, I take this opportunity to first thank and show my gratitude to our people in southern Mali, the respectable young youth of which rose in large numbers for their religion and for their land and joined the ranks of the mujahedeen in order to defend Islam and participate in standing up to the invaders who want to occupy their lands. Second, I call the Muslim Malian people to rise with its scholars and preachers, youth and elderly, honorable and intellectual, and all of their tribes, to defend the Islamic project by putting their hands in the hands of their brothers in the Ansaruddin Movement and to share an understanding with them and to be one hand and a solid line to save the country from division, and make the lurkers miss the opportunity, those who don't care about the interest of the country or the interest of the people. Their solid line, Allah permitting, will be like a strong dam that will stop the imminent foreign Crusader invasion and foil its ambition.

I also beseech Muslims everywhere to support their brothers in Mali and to offer them all types of support and help. The Muslim is the brother of the Muslim, and the believers are like the organs of one body.

The fourth message:

It is a message that I direct to the African peoples. I want to explain to them that the battle of al-Qaeda and the mujahedeen with the arrogant West isn't defense of Muslim interests alone, but it is also defense of the weak and the oppressed all over the world, and it is resistance to oppression that is over all humanity, and in particular, the Africans whom the Western men enslaved and drove as shackled slaves over the oceans to build their civilization at the expense of their suffering and tragedy. We want you to free yourselves from the Western dominance and break the shackles, because one of our goals is liberating people from the worship of other people to the worship of the Lord of people, and we want also for justice to spread among all peoples, for there is no difference between black or white except with piety. So, the victory of the mujahedeen against the West, which is looting your wealth, building the luxury of its peoples at the expense of the poverty and misery of your children, is actually a victory for the African peoples and a great win for them.

The fifth message:

I direct it to the French people, and I say to them: Hollande, whose popularity is decreasing, wants to cover the failure of his domestic policies through the policy of fleeing forward. This way, he wants to involve you more than your past involvement in Afghanistan, as Bush did before him and lost. He wants to expose your security and interests and the lives of your sons to a danger that is greater Than any previous time. Ask any economic expert if the wars waged by the Western politicians against the Muslims in Afghanistan, Iraq and Somalia increased the prosperity of Europe, or if they make it drown in an unprecedented financial crisis that is threatening its decline.

Ask the mothers of the French soldiers killed in Afghanistan if the decision by Sarkozy's party was correct, or if it was a curse and loss for France.

If your wise ones have agreed that it was a wrong decision, then know that regarding Hollande's decision to wage a war in the Sahel, the coming days will show to you that it is much worse than Sarkozy's mistake and its price will be exorbitant and more costly. Preserving France's interests will only be in abandoning the causes and the policies that made France a target. France's interests could be preserved by the wise politicians among you easily in a way that is less costly than the war of Hollande; they just have to step in the right direction. Therefore, take the initiative just like your revolting ancestors did before you, and move before it is too late to stop and oust this failed president who wants to cover his failure by drowning you more and more in a lost war. The most important advantage of this war is giving more legitimacy to our cause and making us more sympathetic, and also making us more insistent and determined to attack your interests, and these

Very vital interests are plenty, which we haven't decided to target until now in the countries of the Sahel.

I don't want to miss in this context to talk directly to the families of the French hostages and confirm something to them:

Your president Hollande is contradicting in the case of your sons and is treating you as stupid ones.

On the one hand he is announcing to you that he is working on saving them, while in reality, through his insistence on military intervention and his secret military movements, he is digging their graves and wants to get rid of their burden.

I advise you to move quickly publicly and in the media to save your sons whom this president will sacrifice for his personal and political calculations. If the kidnapped ones were from among his relatives, he would have dealt with the issue quite differently.

My last message:

I direct it to everyone who is recruiting and insisting on this oppressive war and on top of them the French president and some of the African leaders who are lining up behind him from the countries of the Sahel. I say to them: If you want peace and security in your countries and the countries of the Sahel and the surrounding countries, then we welcome that, but if you want war, then we will answer your call and the Sahara will be a graveyard for your soldiers and an end to your money,

Allah permitting. We are people of war, we were raised in wars and we have a deep experience that qualifies us to win in this type of war. I send you the glad tidings that we have a very long breath.

We waged a war that is 20 years old with hunting rifles and several machineguns, and Allah today granted us a large depot of weapons, ammunitions and respectable youth. Thus, we can respond to any aggression and resist it for another century. We will be keen on our part to make a long war that drains you and deepens your economic and political crises, and we will be more keen to make their sparks reach all the fragile glass houses that are participating in the aggression against us, and Break them apart.

We will wage a holy war for Islam and to defend its land, seeking the help of our Lord and trusting in His victory, glory be to Him, which He promised His believing servants. What defeated America and its henchmen in Afghanistan and Iraq is capable of defeating France and its agents in the Sahara, which will drown them in its burning sands. If you want a war, then we are ready for it and more, and we will achieve victory by the power and strength of Allah, as the Glorified and Exalted said in His Book: "But those who knew with certainty that they were going to meet Allah, said: 'How often a small group overcame a mighty host by Allah's Leave?' And Allah is with the patient ones."

Our last supplication is praise be to Allah, the Lord of the Worlds.
